United States of America
 United States District Court
 For The Western District of Michigan
 Southern Division

Bernard Carter,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 1:16-cv-667

v.

Honorable Robert Holmes Bell

The GEO Group, Inc., et al

Defendants

Order to Consider to Proceed in Forma Pauperis
 Motion Requesting to have attorney represent him

Now comes, Bernard Carter, Plaintiff, pro se, asking to reconsider Plaintiff to dismiss this case with out prejudice. The reason the Plaintiff would like to, is because he really don't know nothing about the Federal Courts ~~process~~ <sup>process</sup> like the state court. Where Plaintiff is wanting to file it there, if possible. If not I would have to proceed. Seeing that I did send you the motion before you made the order, the dismissal from the other defendants would not be in effect, it would go back to where you made decision. Plaintiff just want to deal with the federal court, so he prays the court will dismiss with out prejudice so it can go to the state court first.

Requesting a Attorney

Plaintiff is requesting a lawyer to help him proceed in the above case. Plaintiff feels that, seeing he don't know anything about the law, this would be very useful.

Plaintiff prays that you will grant his motions.
